Lead Strengths-Based Support Group Programs!

Leadership Training on the Girls Circle & Boys Council Programs

Pre-Conference Workshop at the Iowa DMC Conference
December 3, 2008 8:00 am-4:00 pm
Des Moines Holiday Inn Northwest, 4800 Merle Hay Road

A workshop for juvenile justice leadership, probation officers, service providers, educators, therapists, social workers, mental health workers, & others who support girls' or boys' growth and development.

Girls Circle/Boys Council Leadership training has been applied to programs such as juvenile justice, policing, schools, county mental health, public health, child welfare, and community based organizations like boys and girls clubs, substance abuse prevention, pregnancy prevention, and gang-prevention.

Girls Circle is Rated a Promising Approach by the Office of Juvenile Justice & Delinquency Prevention

The Girls Circle/Boys Council Leadership workshop is a timely workshop that provides adults with a solid, progressive framework of applicable skills to provide gender-responsive programs for girls and a strengths-based program for boys, as part of their programming mix.

Girls Circle Program (Morning)	Boys Council Program (Afternoon)
• Philosophy and Rationale of Girls Circle	• Theoretical Framework of Boys Council
• The Girls Circle Format – Why it Works	• The Boys Council Model
• Effective Facilitation Skills	• Promoting Dialogue and Discussion
